Field Programme Underway at Gorge and Juno Gold Projects

GEO Exploration Limited (AIM: GEO) is pleased to announce that its Western Australian exploration team, led by Exploration Manager Tom Harris, is currently in the field undertaking a programme of exploration activities across the Company's Gorge and Juno Gold Projects.

The current field programme includes:

Gorge Gold Project

- Native Title and heritage fieldwork with relevant Traditional Owners and YMAC;
- geological mapping and ground truthing across priority target areas;
- rock-chip sampling and drone-supported reconnaissance; and
- assessment of site access and logistics for future exploration and drilling activities.

Juno Gold Project

- field reconnaissance and ground truthing of priority magnetic targets;
- Native Title and heritage fieldwork with relevant Traditional Owners; and
- assessment of access and logistics for future exploration activities.

The current programme is intended to further advance both projects and support the planning and prioritisation of GEO's next phase of exploration activities.

The Company will provide further updates as its exploration programmes progress.
